Dr. Philip A. Composto, Community Superintendent's Report

The Superintendent's Report follows the minutes.

Whitney Toussaint congratulated Dr. Composto for being appointed District 30 Superintendent. She stressed the importance of the DOE bringing back Grab and Go Meals because many communities depend on it.

Victoria Medelius congratulated Dr. Composto.

Deborah Alexander agreed with Ms. Toussaint about the need for Grab and Go Meals. She asked if proof of vaccination and ID are required to enter the building. Dr. Composto said they are not required because people enter through a specific entrance and go only to the cafeteria.

Marisela Santos congratulated Dr. Composto.

Kelly Craig congratulated Dr. Composto.

Michelle Moore stressed the importance of Grab and Go.

Fatima Lakrafl congratulated Dr. Composto.

Jonathan Greenberg asked about the LGBTQ curriculum being in all schools and classrooms. Dr. Composto reported that the Passport curriculum is used in every school. Mr. Greenberg asked about the restructuring of the district office. The DOE has not provided any guidance about this.

Public Agenda and Speaking

Venus Ketcham, parent advocate, supports parent engagement and education.

Becca Staley, co-president Presidents' Council, congratulated Dr. Composto and would like a more engagement.

Kate Menken believes that District 30 is not doing enough for ELL students. Dr. Composto reported that every parent gets to decide what they want for their child.

Rachel Louis, parent 384, asked how long the Summer Rising waitlist stays open. Dr. Composto said they keep it open as long as possible. She also spoke about the public having to wait so long to speak at the meetings. Mr. Greenberg said the members will discuss this.

Emily A, parent of student entering kindergarten at PS 78, spoke in support of Whitney Toussaint as co-president.

Kelly Craig read the Q&A.

Adjournment

There being no further business, Kelly Craig made a motion to adjourn the meeting. Whitney Toussaint seconded. All in favor. The motion was passed unanimously. The meeting was adjourned at 8:31 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Victoria Medelius
Secretary

Admissions Waitlist Offers for Students in MySchools

3K, Pre-K, and Kindergarten: Schools will begin to make waitlist offers, through the School Portal to students who may have been added to the waitlist, provided there are available seats. Note that waitlist offers must be made in order of waitlist position.

Middle Schools: Schools will begin to make offers, through the School Portal provided there are available seats. Offers will be made to zoned students (students new to NYC and zoned to the school), or continuing students (students who initially received an offer to another school but are now interested in changing their offer to the zoned school) who have been waitlisted to the middle school. Note that waitlist offers must be made in order of waitlist position.

High Schools: Schools will begin to make offers, through the School Portal, to high school students who have been waitlisted to the school, providing there are available seats. Note that waitlist offers must be made in order of waitlist position.
